BLUFF

The letter 'B' is a large, bold, red block letter. Inside the 'B', there is a stylized landscape illustration. The top part of the 'B' contains a light pink, jagged line representing a horizon or a hill. Below this, there are several black, curved lines of varying lengths, suggesting a field or a body of water. The rest of the 'B' is solid red.

Superintendent

The new cafeteria and the occupation of the new Junior High building might be called another feather in the cap of Charles H. Davis, Jr., superintendent of schools. Mr. Davis has worked untiringly to perfect the Scottsbluff schools. As a consequence the city of Scottsbluff can rightfully boast of one of the finest educational systems in the state.

A hearty pat on the back would not sufficiently show our thanks and appreciation to the competent Board of Education members of Scottsbluff.

Through their efforts we enjoy our present school status and excellent training.

Board Of Education

Administration

Principal Lawrence Lemons attended Scottsbluff high as a boy and set a fine example for other Scottsbluff students to follow.

Now he shows his outstanding ability by applying it to the benefit of the entire student body.

No doubt you first met popular Assistant Principal R. J. Roberts while obtaining a tardy slip, but in addition to this task he performs many others.

Our school song, "Fight Team Fight" was written by him.

Assistant Junior High Principal Charles Wehrer, a progressive administrator, is well-liked by his students.

SENIOR FAREWELL

As they leave Scottsbluff High School, the graduates of '51 open the doors and glance back at the highlights of the senior year.

Muddy-yes-but oh what a game with Mitchell that night! Even though the score, 14 to 0, was as bitter as the weather, many rosy cheeks were seen following the first football games of the year as the chain added links and started rolling.

October brought the world famous traveling show of Horace Heidt's which brought honor to the community as Rita Keeley and Rita Green won recognition.

Sadie Hawkins day arrived, and the first senior party of the year proved to be a howling success. Career day followed the activities of November and portrayed the more serious side of life. The final football game with Cheyenne as our homecoming guest gave us a 57-7 victory which made ceremonies complete.

Chilly December bid Jack Frost hello and guided the way for him after a senior dance that month. Various clubs combined their singing abilities and spread the Christmas spirit throughout the town.

Recovering from holiday after-effects, the senior class moved into a brand new year.

"The Red Mill" under the direction of Morrie Hayes, gained popularity as one of the outstanding operettas ever put on by Scottsbluff.

Exhibiting scholarship interests, several seniors were kept busy applying for awards. Pat Bradley received the State Elks' prize near the first of March. Try-outs for "Our Town" took place followed by considerable commotion and due excitement after winning games from Kearney and North Platte at the district tournament. The state tournament at Lincoln attracted many loyal fans.

April 23 was the skip day, and it was used to its fullest advantage.

May was the month of the junior-senior banquet. "Moonlit Garden" enchanted many a senior and made it a night never to be forgotten.

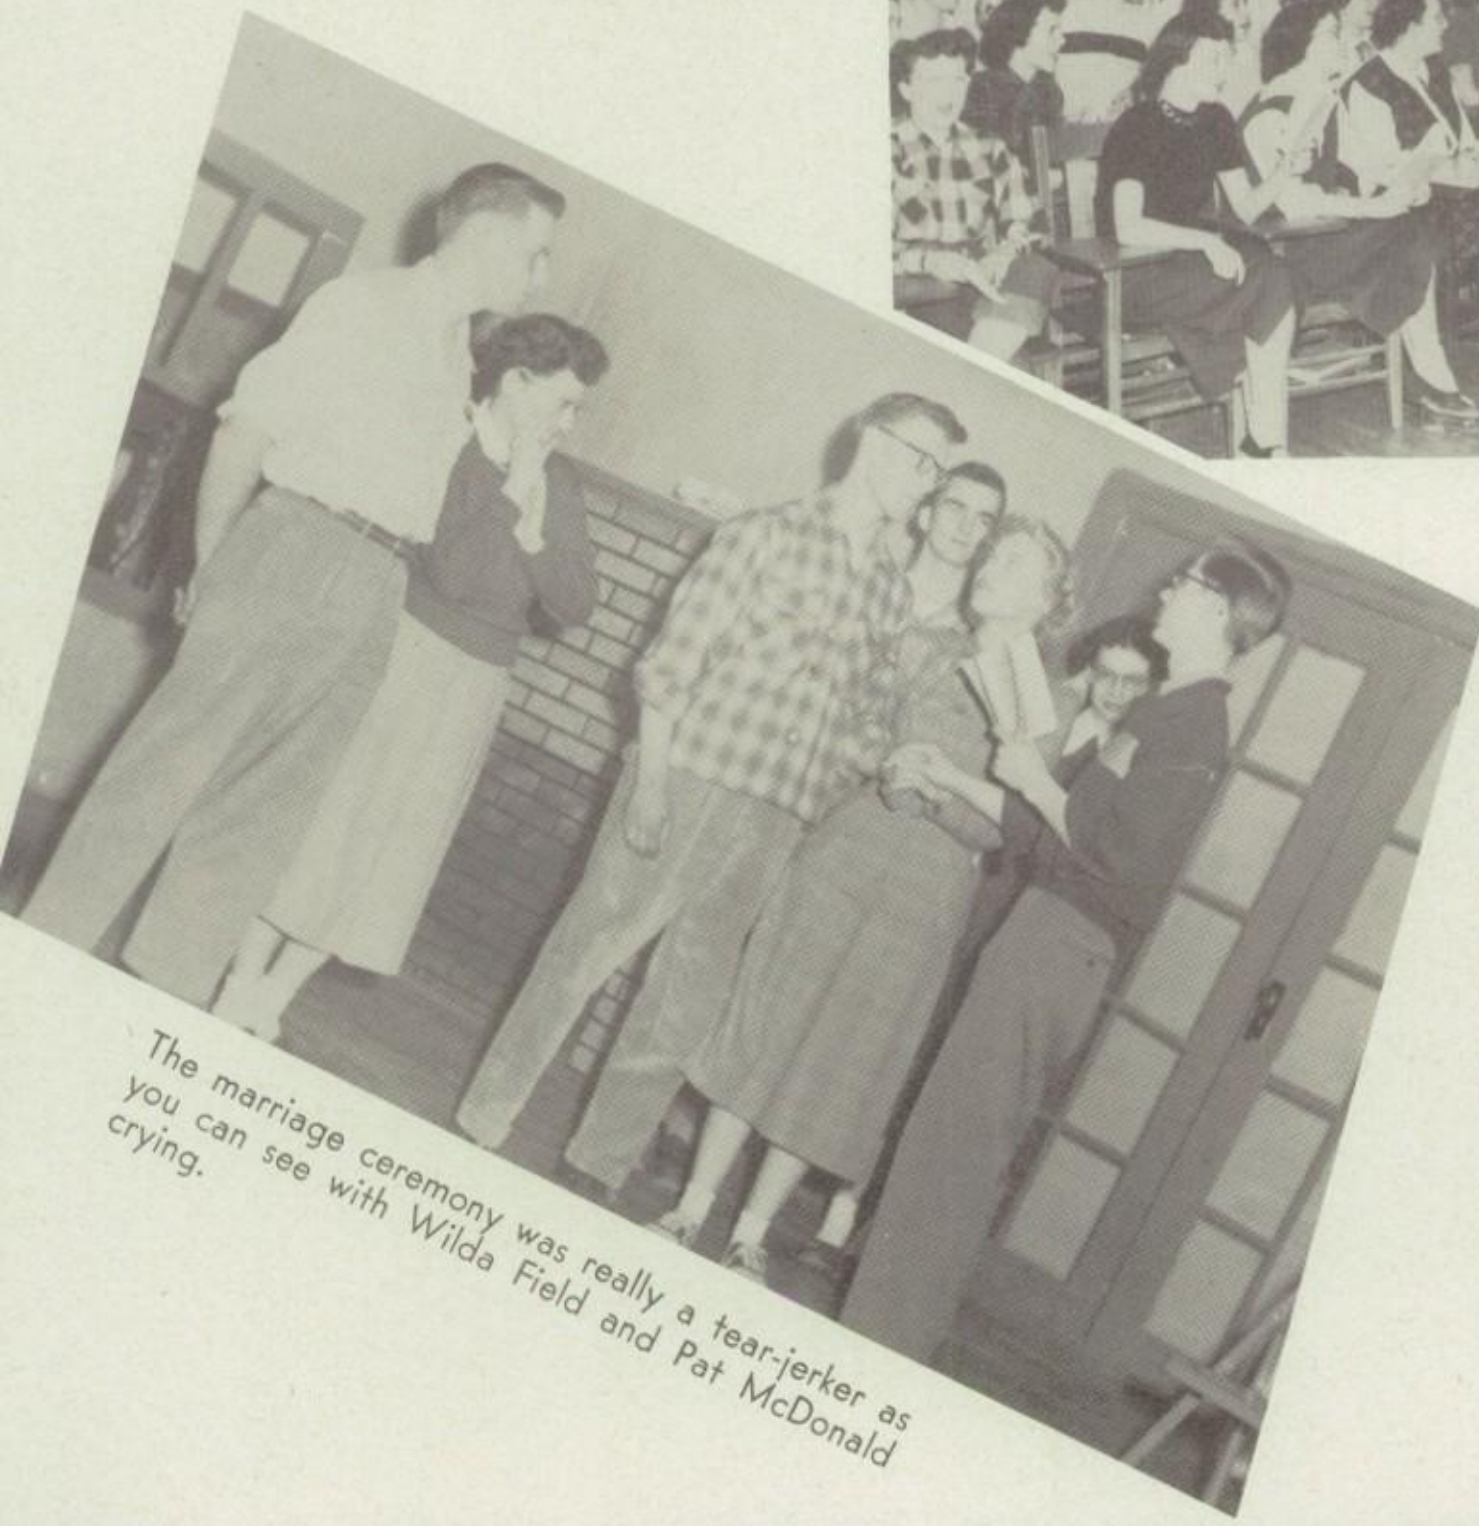

Class day is held dear to every student, whether a freshman or junior, but full explanation of a senior's feelings can never actually be understood until one is a senior and has experienced it. Baccalaureate words are long remembered. Commencement, the final step to graduation, is a confused moment of solitude being broken by the sound of opening doors that bid farewell to the seniors as they tread the golden path toward adulthood.

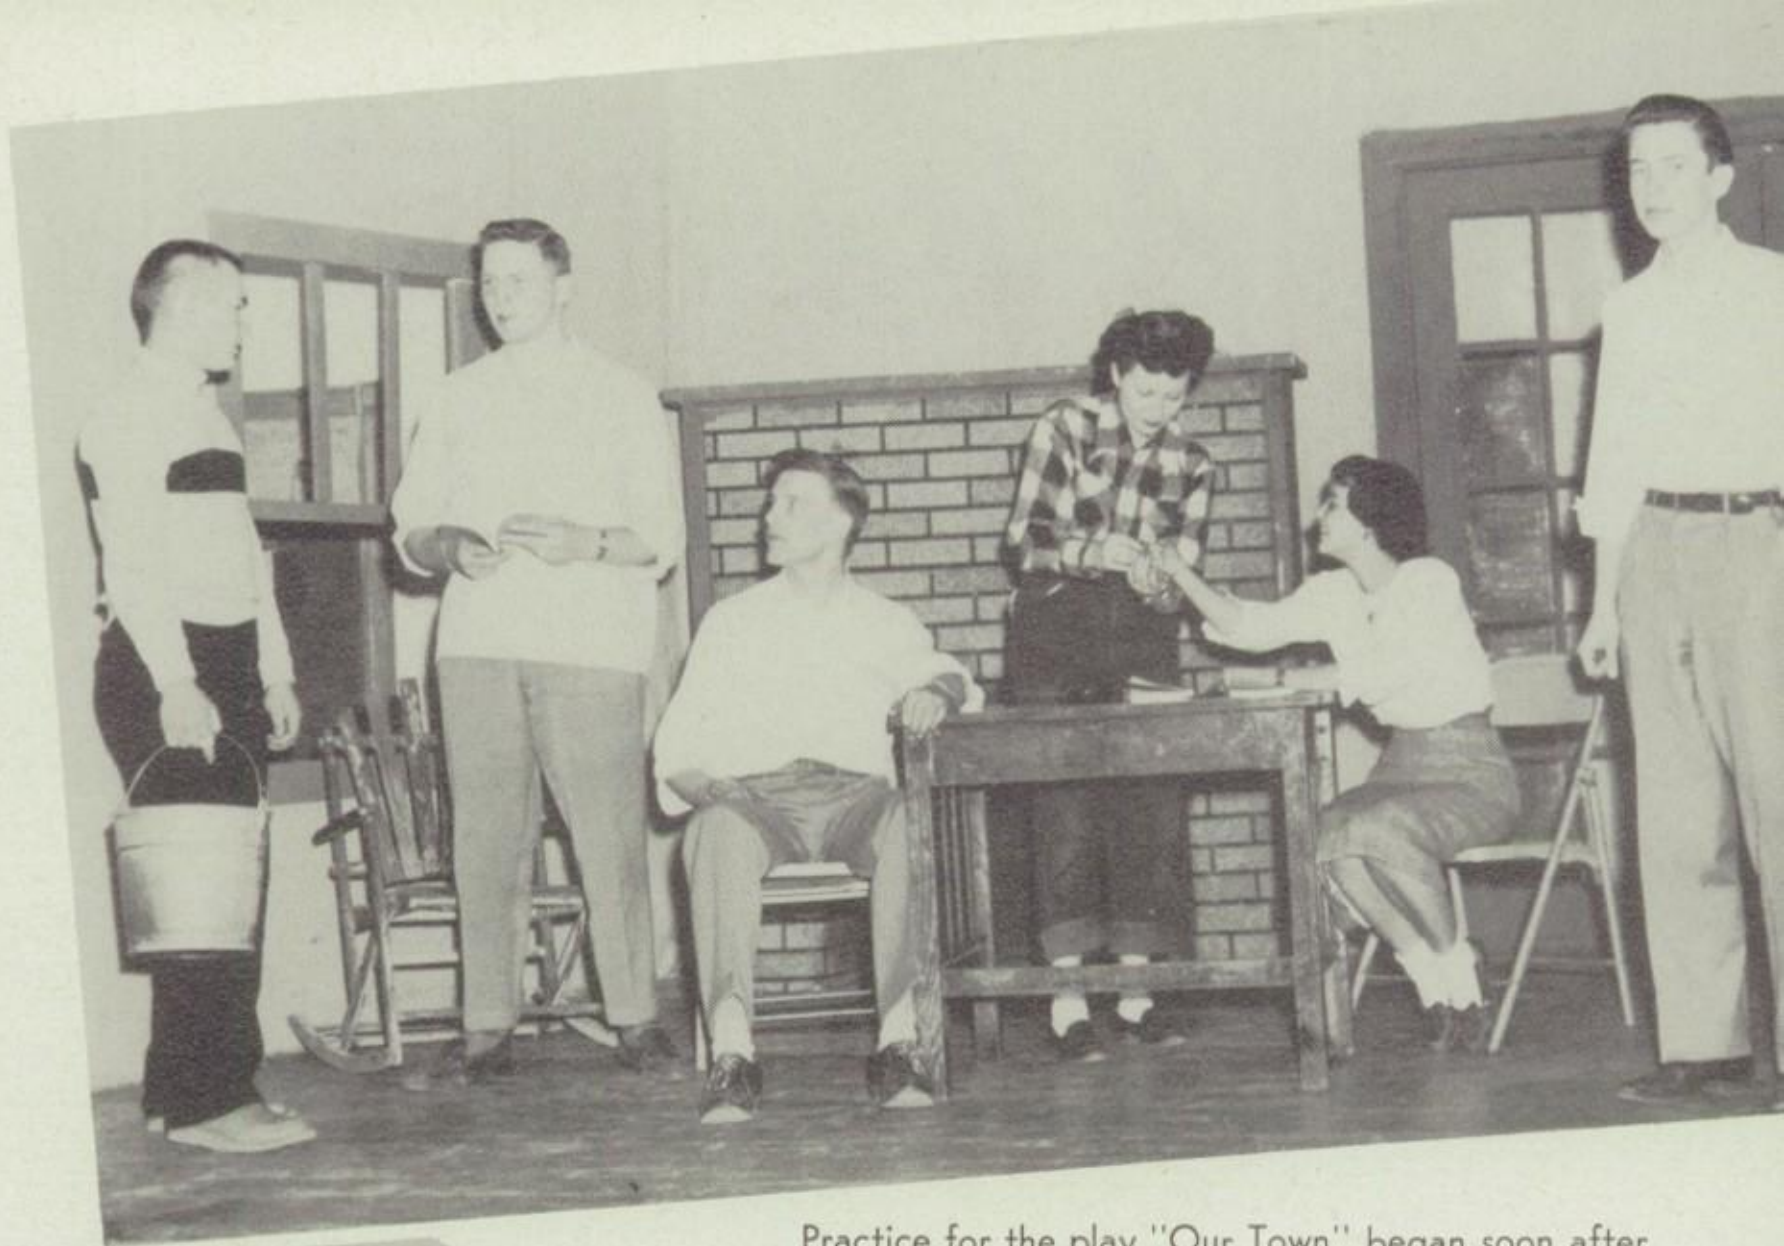

Senior Class Play

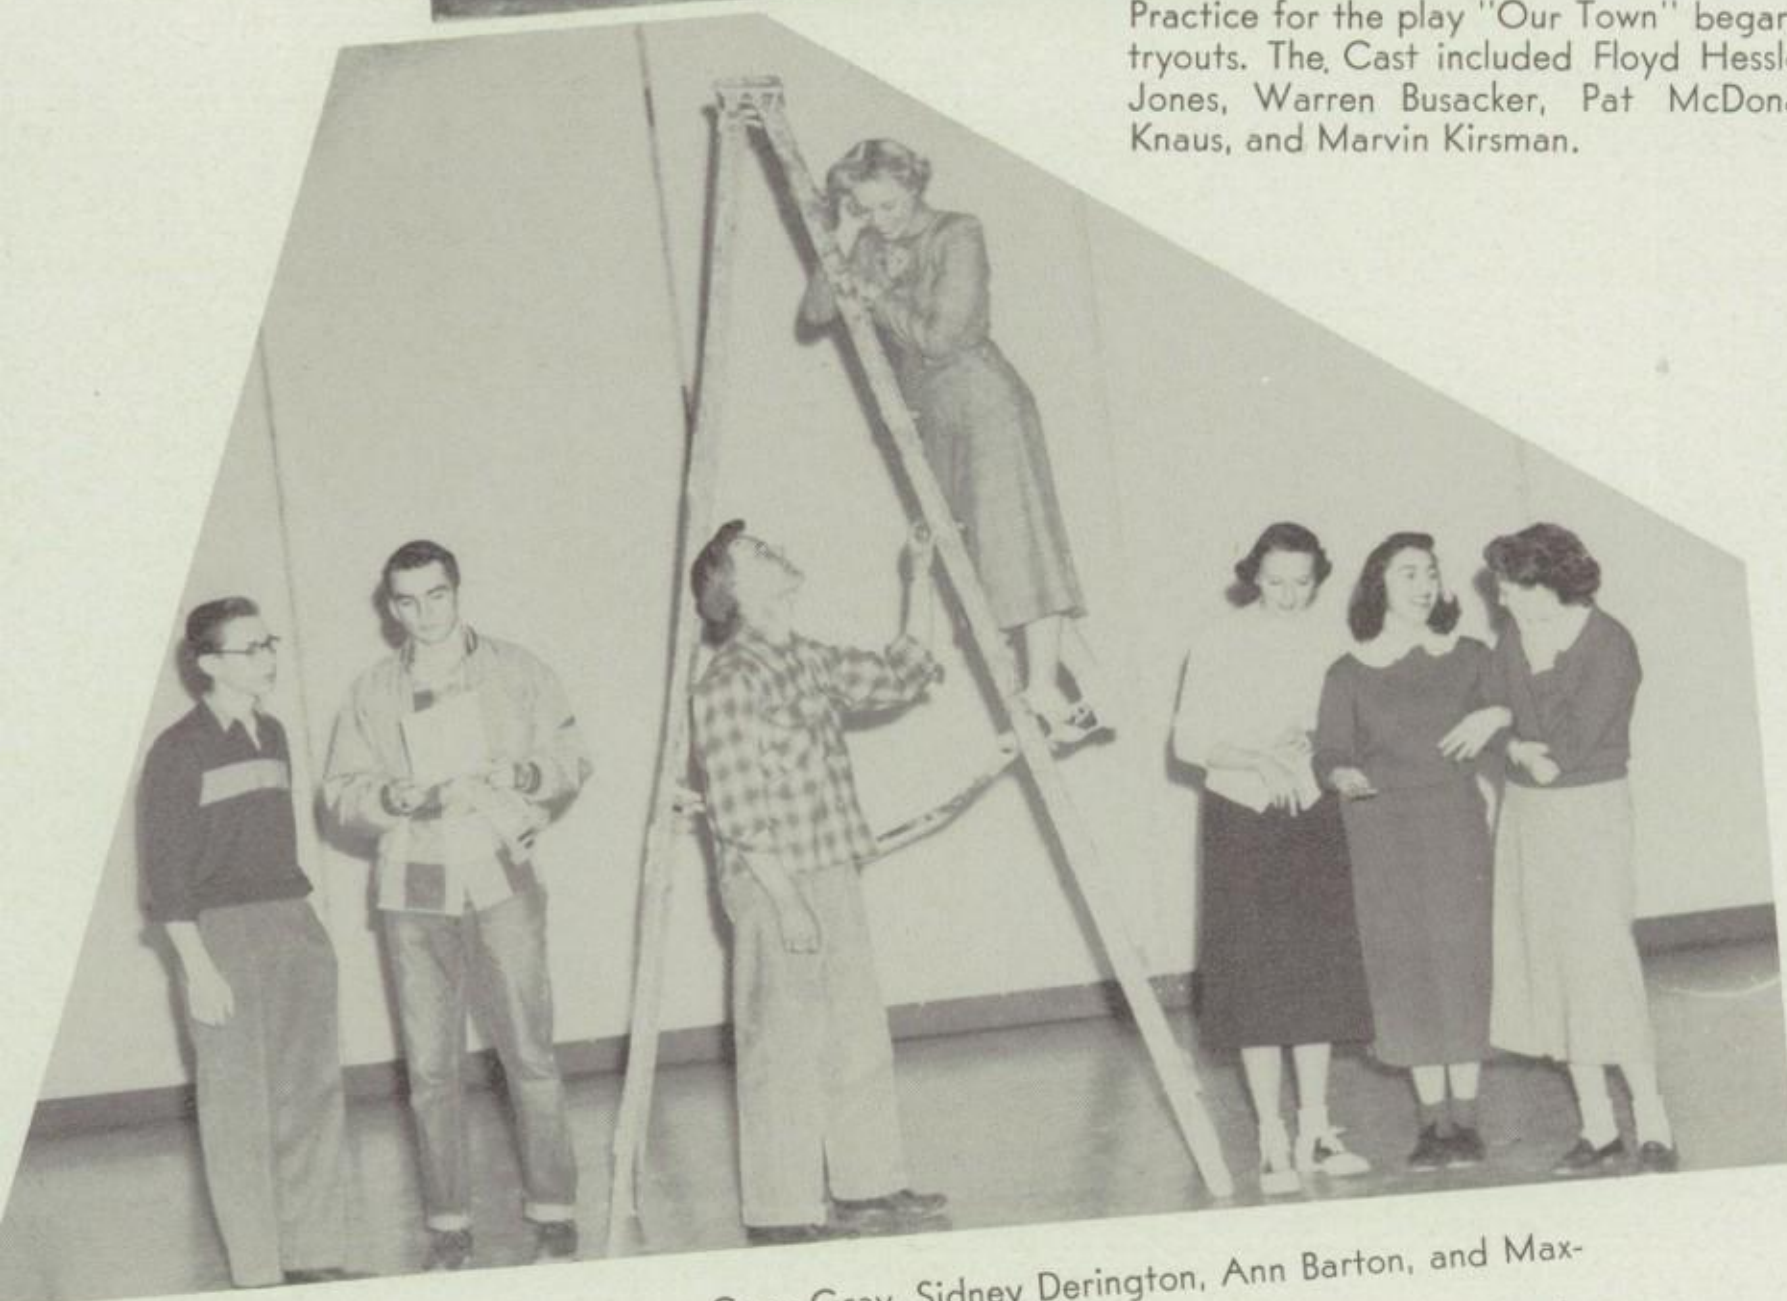

Many of the cast doubled for roles in the choir which is pictured here singing "Blest Be The Tie that Binds."

The marriage ceremony was really a tear-jerker as you can see with Wilda Field and Pat McDonald crying.

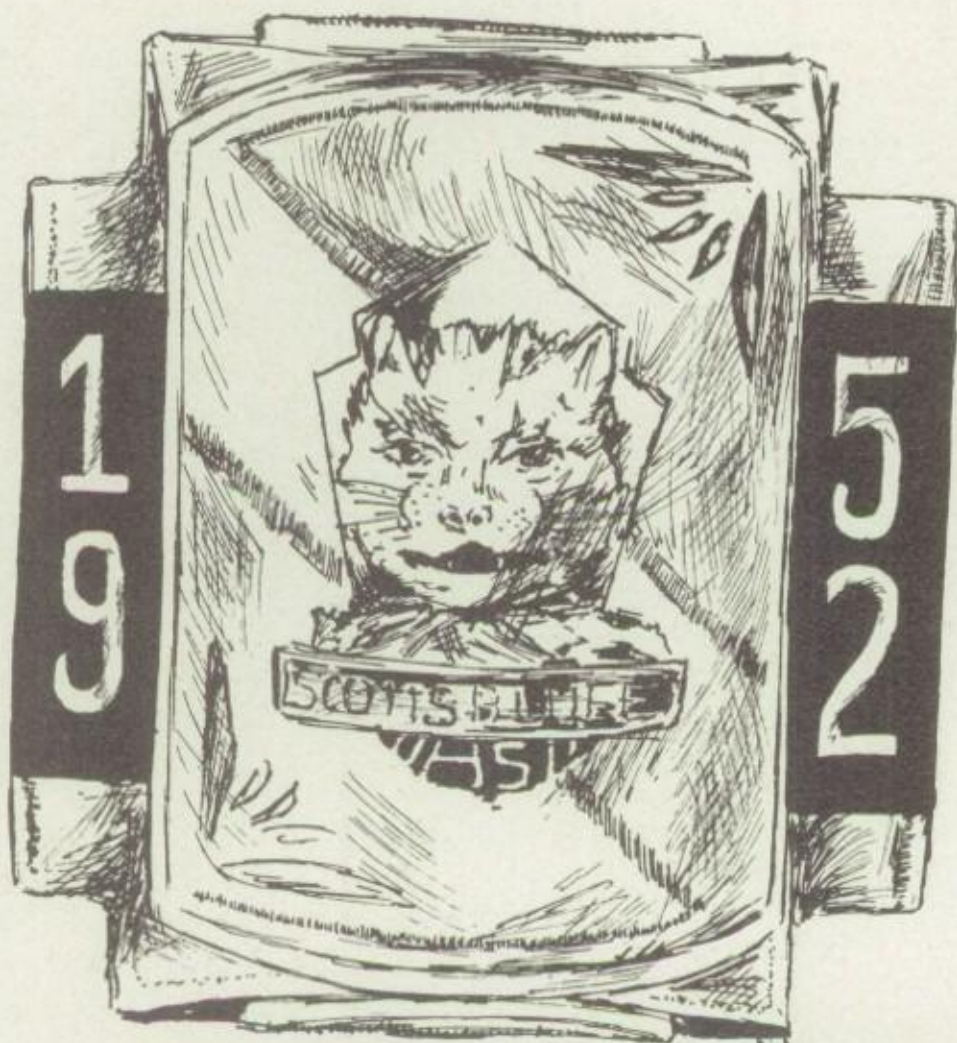

Practice for the play "Our Town" began soon after tryouts. The Cast included Floyd Hessler, Raymon Jones, Warren Busacker, Pat McDonald, Alice Knaus, and Marvin Kirsman.

Junior Class Play

Class Play

Dolan Eckdahl, Harley Behm, Dick Jacobs and Wayne McFarland do a little dance in "A Young Man's Fancy" as Jack Lawler looks on.

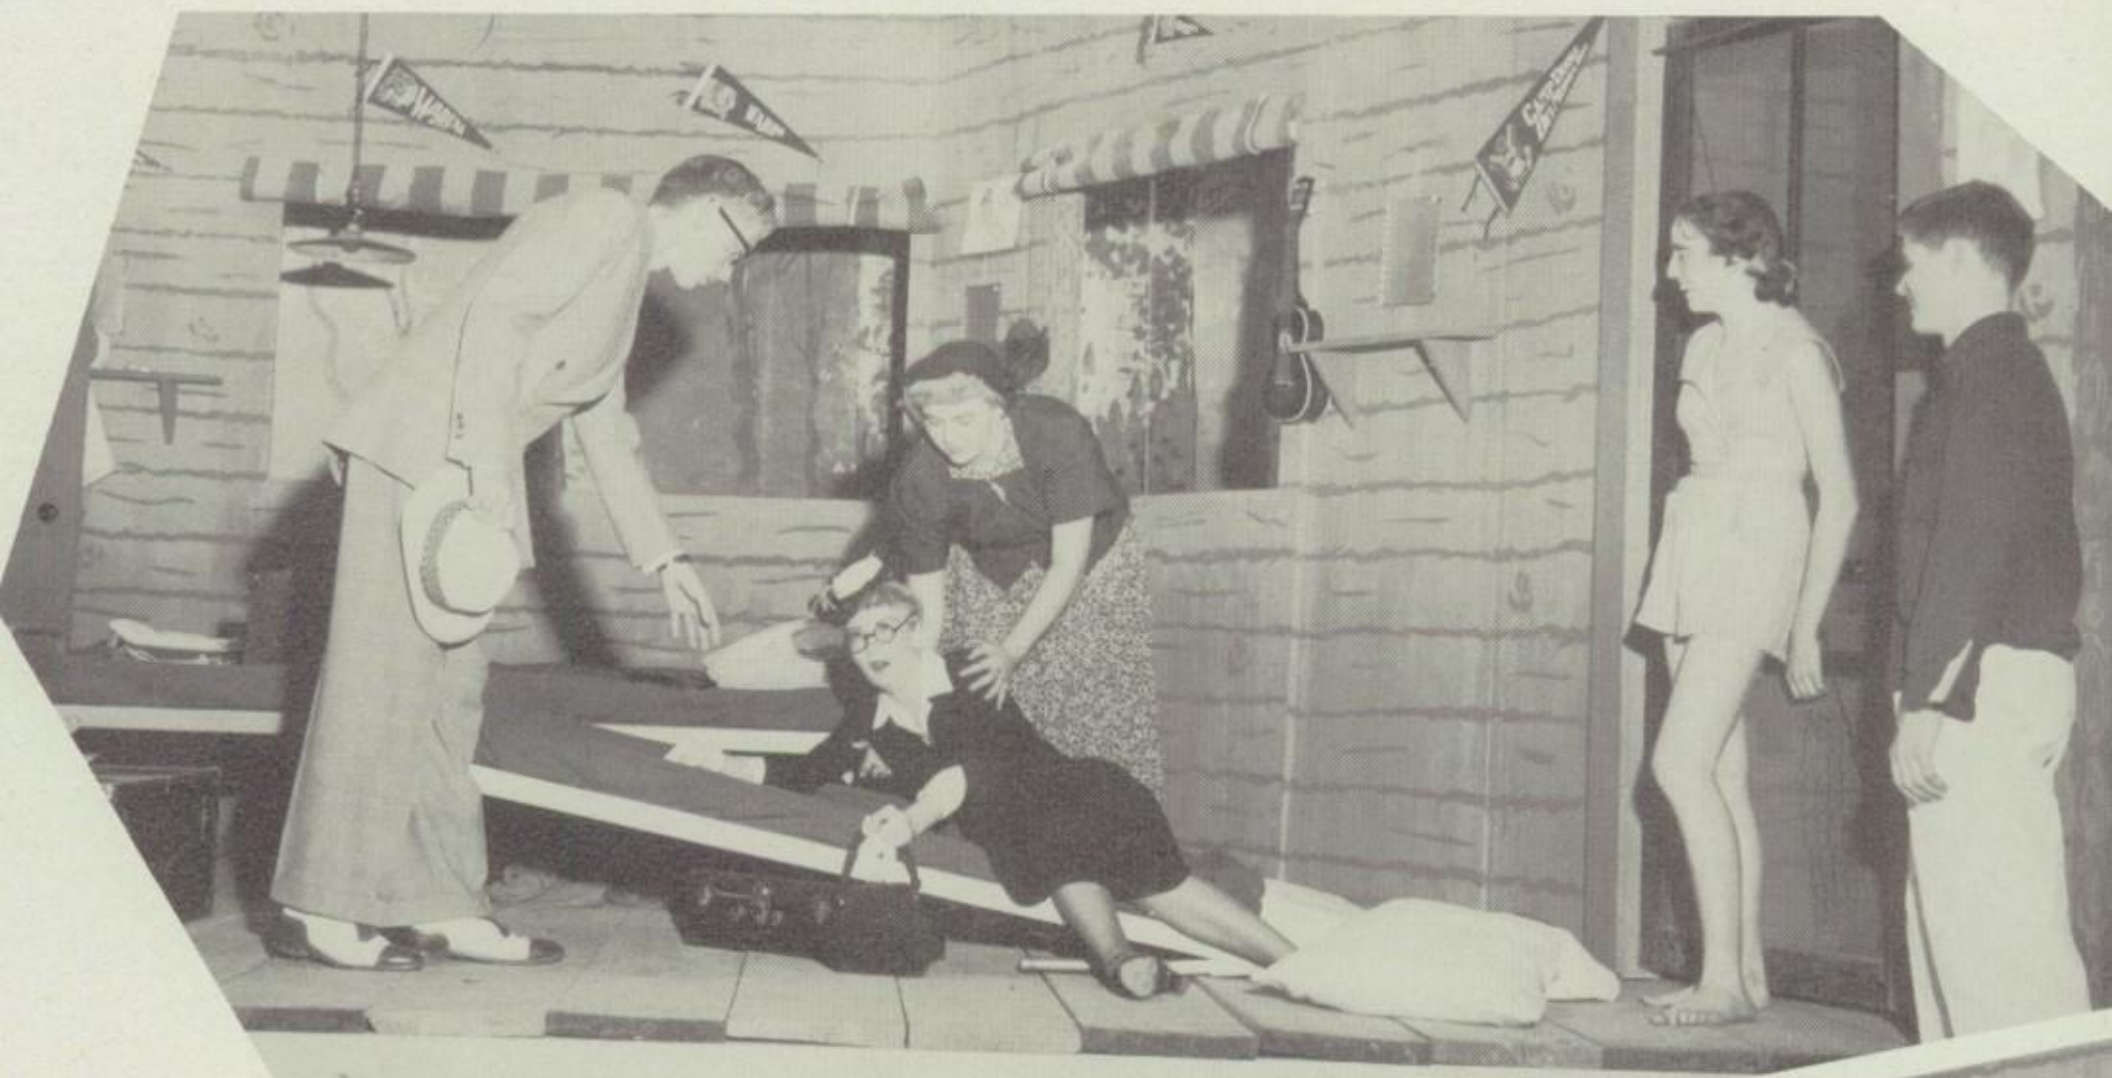

Margie Howard and Ken Wlaschin, below, enjoy a few minutes of rest and relaxation between practice scenes.

B. Harrison, D. Eckdahl, H. Behm, D. Jacobs, W. McFarland, D. McCubbin, J. Lawler, S. Graff, M. Amen, P. Shirley, M. Butts, R. Babka, M. Stanker, N. Shehein, C. Shaw.

Beware of sitting on beds in this year's Junior Class Play. The cast certainly had their ups and downs.

Jack Lawler and Ken Wlaschin enjoy the action while Harley Behm, Dolan Eckdahl, Wayne McFarland and Dick Jacobs prepare themselves for a good old-fashioned pillow fight.

Organizations

National Honor Society

The NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY is based upon the character, scholarship, leadership, and service of the students who are inducted.

The upper five percent of the junior class and the upper fifteen percent of the senior class are tapped during an annual ceremony at the end of the school year. Inauguration into the National Honor Society is the highest honor which may be bestowed upon a high school student.

Sponsors of this organization are Miss Alice Carter, Mrs. Helen Correll and Mr. Roy Jeffers.

Next to National Honor Society, membership in QUILL and SCROLL is the highest honor that can be bestowed on a high school student. There were many members in this year's group who distinguished themselves in the field of writing, art, or advertising.

Miss Bigelow, Miss Moor, Miss Brown, Miss Herrmann, and Mr. Urbanek were the able sponsors who led this year's STUDENT COUNCIL over the rough spots.

JoAnn Meyers, Jackie Wilson, Darlene Jensen and Wanda Kline seem to take ART seriously.

Echoes Staff

A new and able sponsor, Miss Irene Auble, helps editors Glenda Duncan and Carolyn Gaukel correct the staff's stories.

Glenda Duncan, first semester ECHOES editor, boards the train enroute to Chicago where she attended the National Press Convention.

Marga West finishes a story, while Micki Parrish hands in her story to Shirley Roberts to be typed.

Lyle Krull points out advertising lay-outs to Howard Hall, Howard Miller, and Al Dugger.

Connie Castinado, Maxine Masid and Helen Numon work on news stories for the first page.

Mary Cotton, Rita Keeley, Carla Olson, and Jane Haylett are punctuating a last minute story.

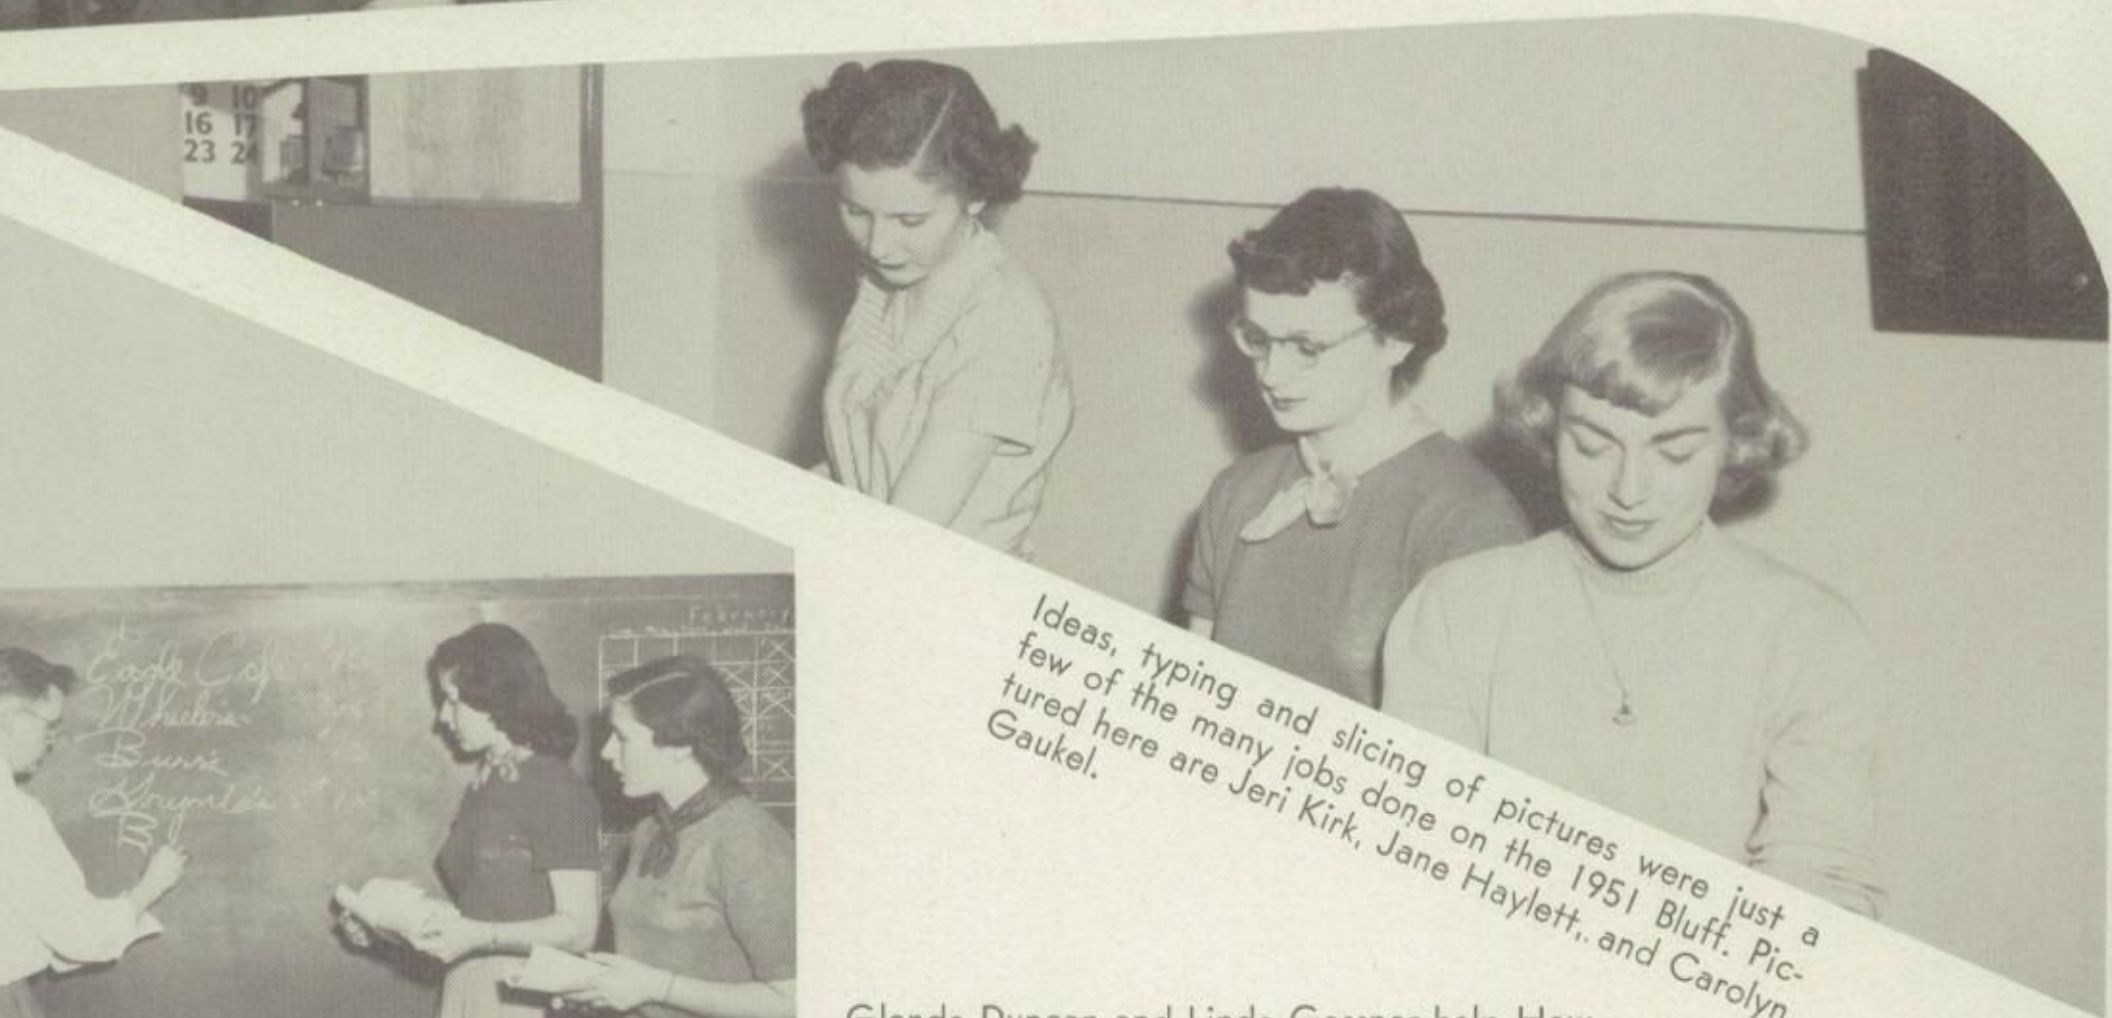

Yearbook Staff

Jean Ann Wyatt, Pat McDonald, and Alice Knaus are getting a good laugh from the cutouts to be used in the YEARBOOK.

Editors Geri Kenzy, Helen Numon, and Gene Gray contribute the starting ideas for the make-up of the Bluff.

Ideas, typing and slicing of pictures were just a few of the many jobs done on the 1951 Bluff. Pictured here are Jeri Kirk, Jane Haylett, and Carolyn Gaukel.

Glenda Duncan and Linda Gassner help Howard Hall in listing advertisers' names.

Morris Hayes and boys look wide awake as they start the long trip to Lincoln for the Scottsbluff-Lincoln Central football game.

Girls' Glee Club

Anyone attending the Fall Concert directed by Morris Hayes would certainly agree that the GIRLS' GLEE CLUB was one of the high lights of the program.

It takes many hours of preparation to be ready for a performance.

Boys' Glee Club

Mr. Hayes seems to be having some sort of fun with the members of BOYS' GLEE CLUB. Maybe he'll let us in on the joke.

It must be the Whiffenpoof Song.
It was one of their best numbers.

Boys' Physical Education

Physical education classes enjoy a game of football while the pleasant fall weather still permits it.

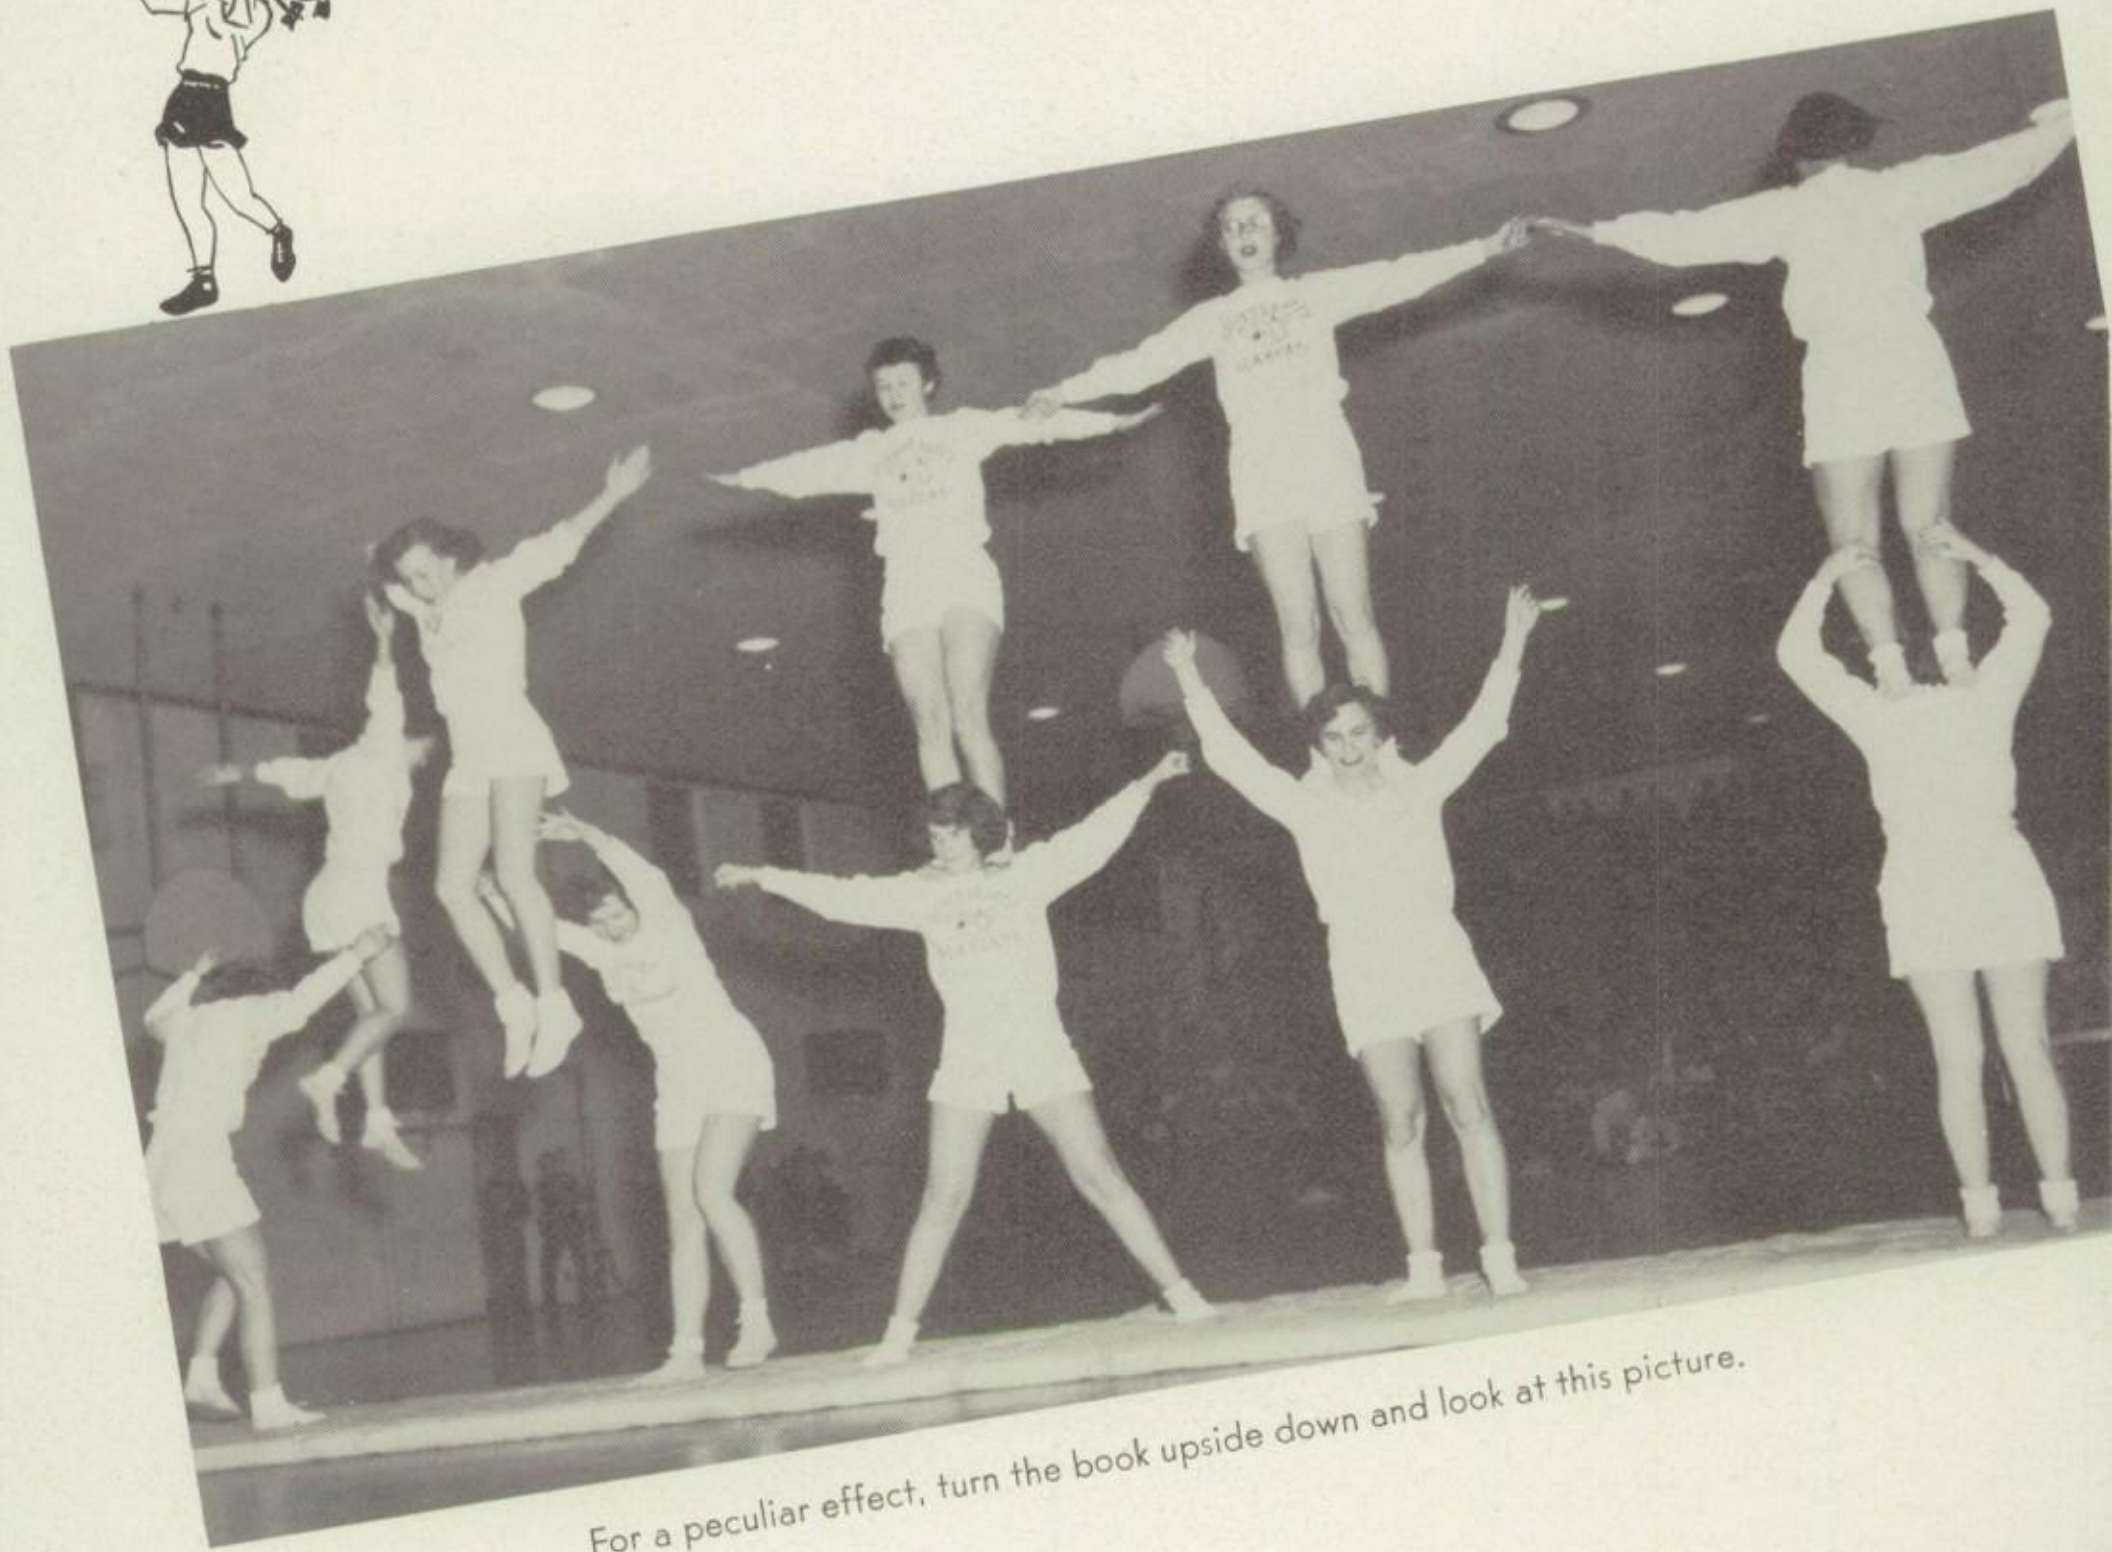

A little work and lots of fun in those physical education classes.

Mr. Bill Conner gives a few pointers on tumbling.

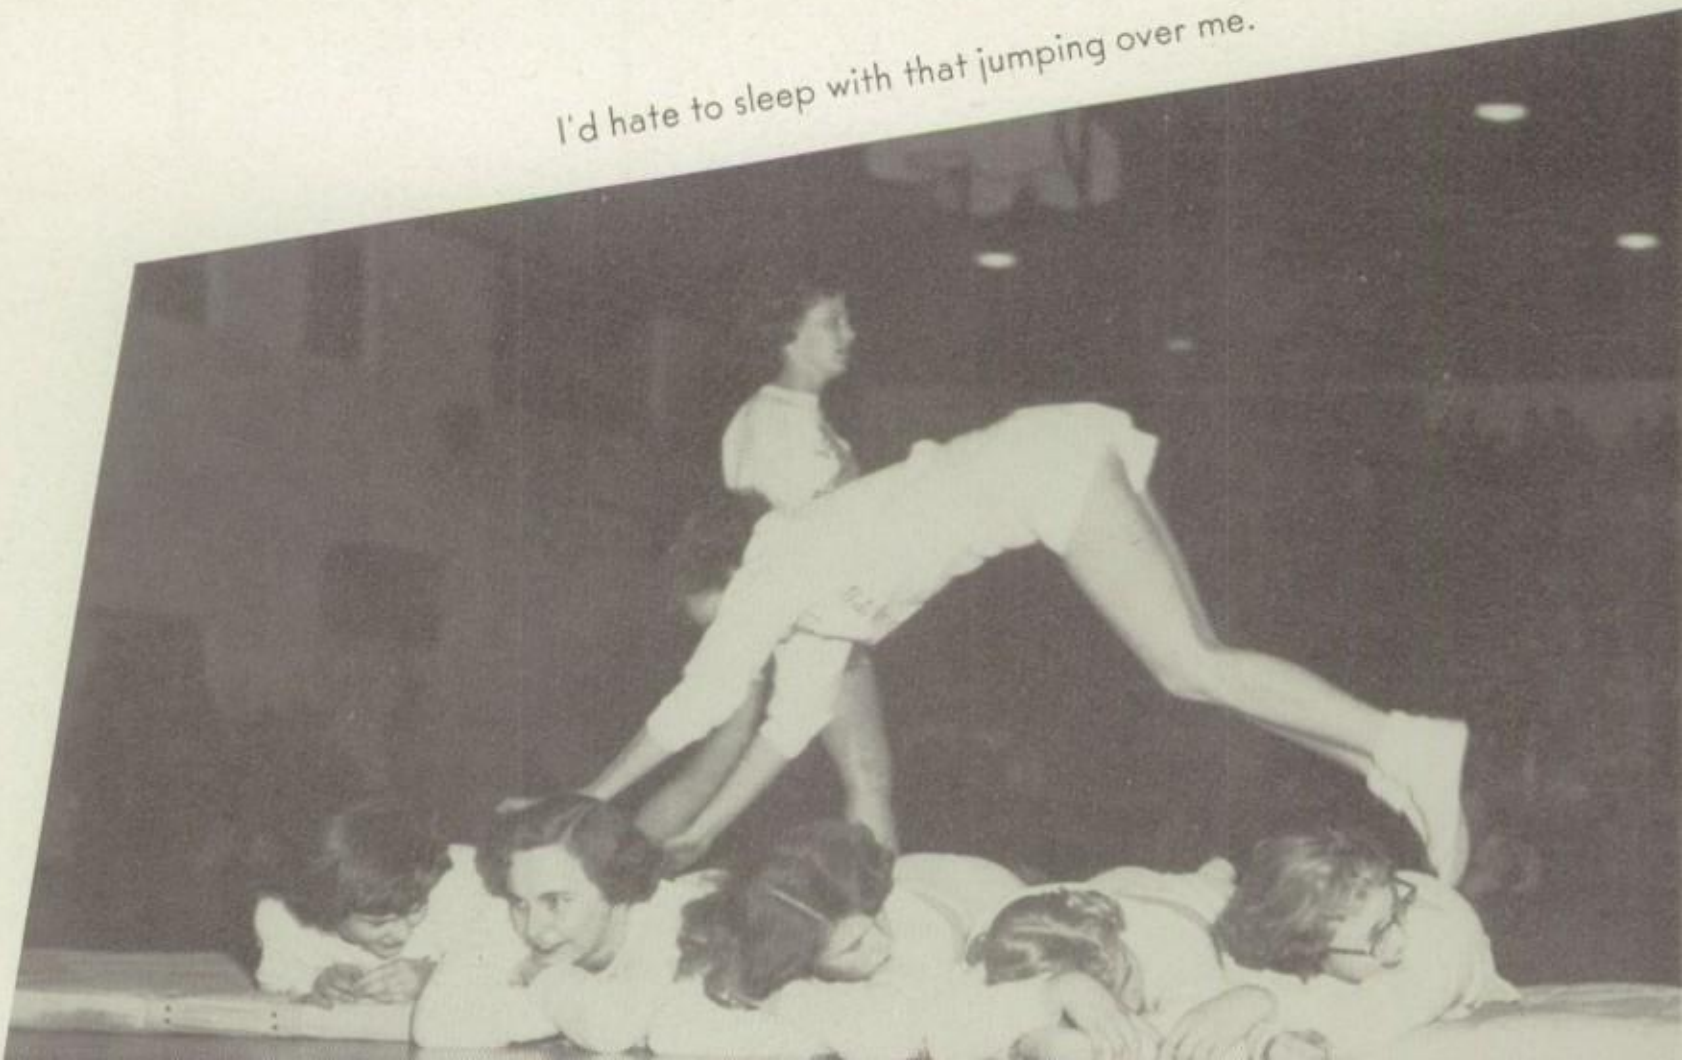

It's really not as hard as it looks.

Skittens

Daisies don't lie. Anyway that's the way Carla Olson and Wilda Field seem to feel about it as they take the petals off to the tune of "We will win, we won't win, we will win."

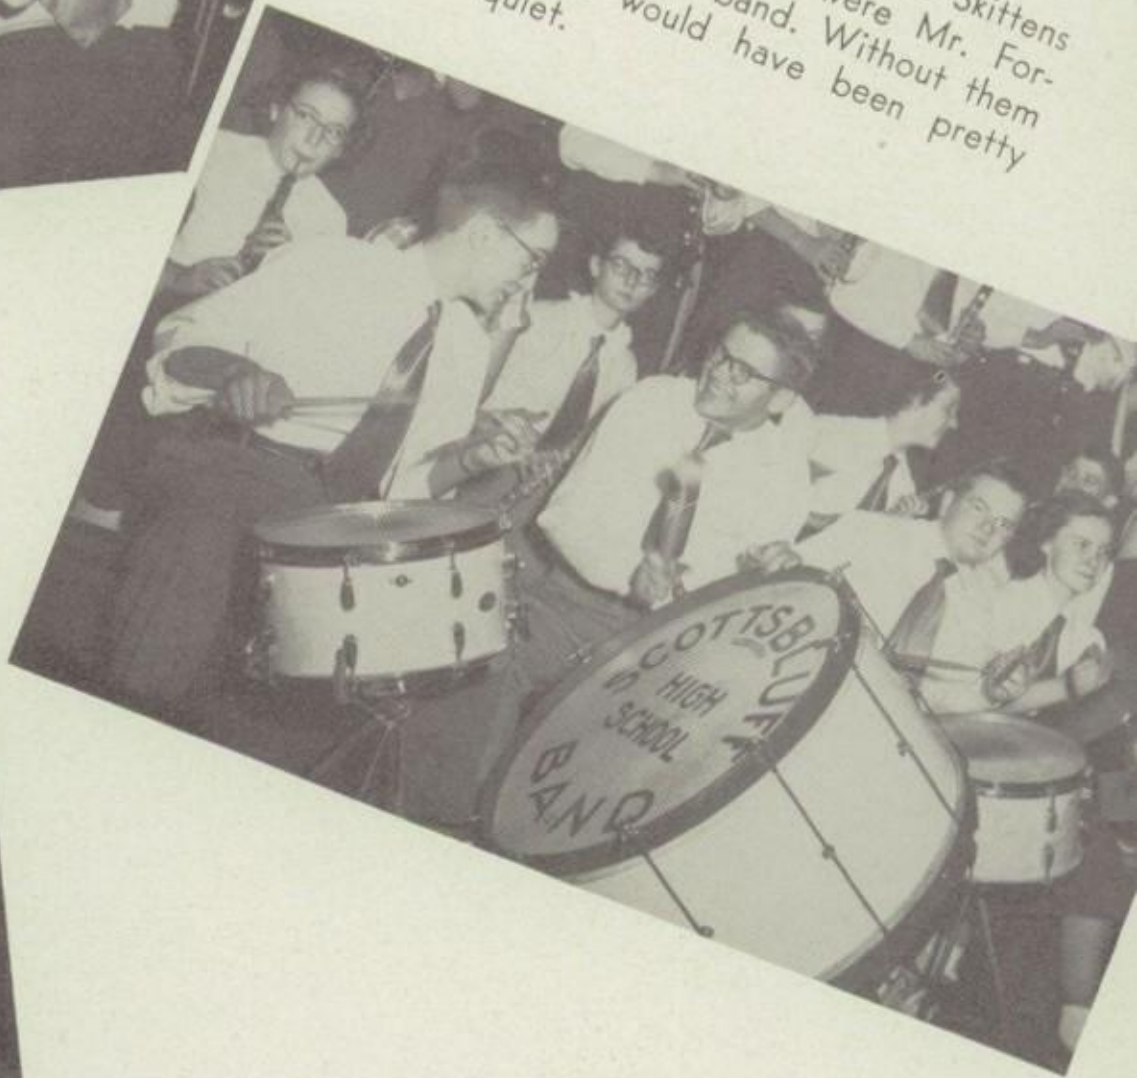

Always backing the team, rain or shine, were the Skittens with Delores Shrader as president, Carla Olson, vice president, Greta Westervelt, secretary and Maxine Ma-sid, treasurer.

Sharon, Susie, JoAnn, Micki and Di were perhaps the peppiest cheerleaders any school could ask for.

Always there to back the Skittens and cheerleaders were Mr. Forbes and his band. Without them games would have been pretty quiet.

We all make mistakes!
An erasure is all right now, but there is a time when nothing can be done about the errors that have been made.

WOMENS

One of the most valuable classes taught in our school is the sewing class. Here, girls learn to make with their own hands, the things that they have always visualized.

Cut material according to the length desired. How many times has that been said? This year, these girls had a large room in which to design and sew their clothes, whereas last year and years before the cooking and sewing classes have been pretty much restricted.

Girls are taught to make use of the handy little utilities which make sewing so much easier.

Vocations

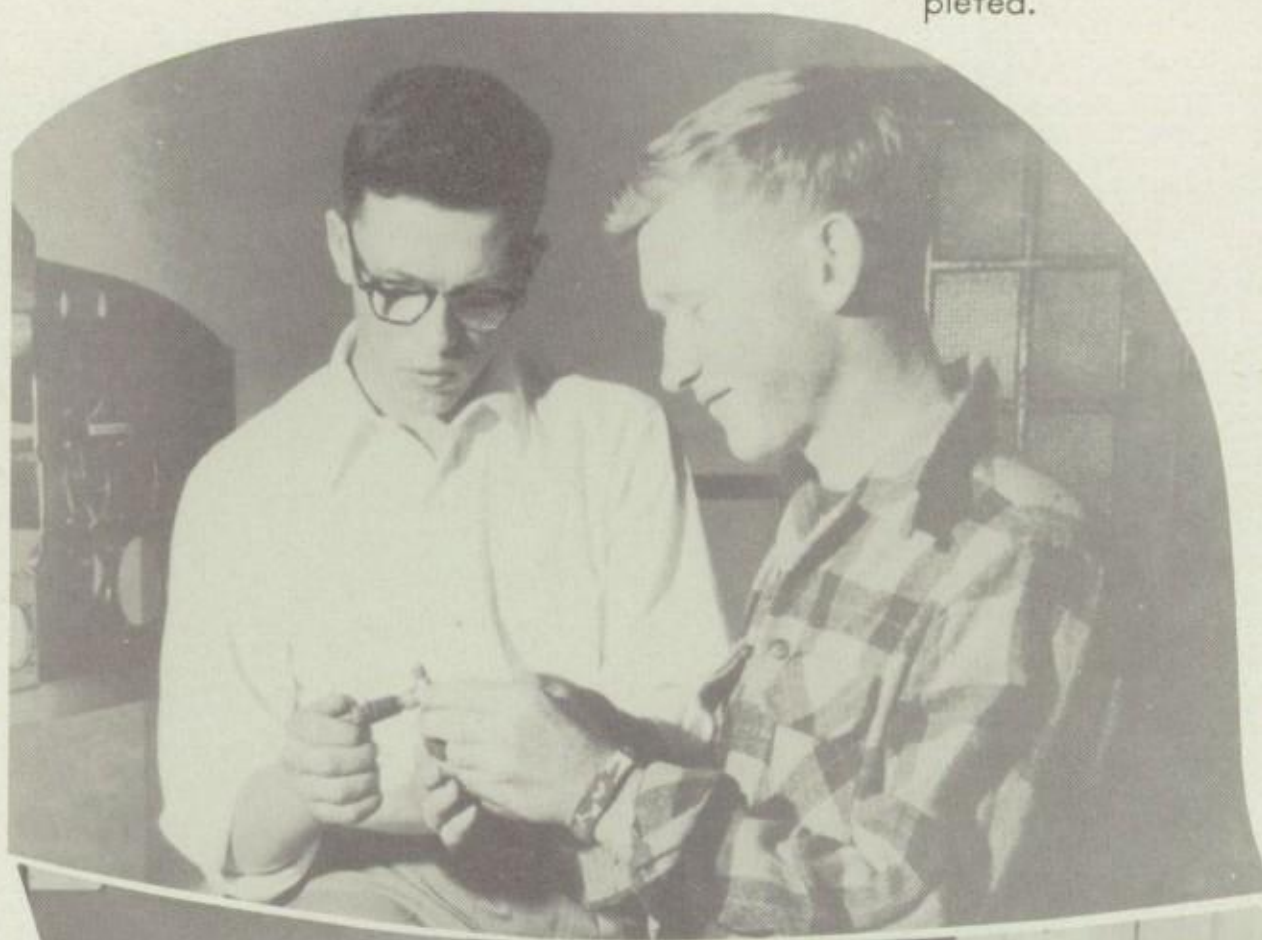

Skip Clyde, Roger Cleveland, and Jeri Kirk seem to be wound up in airplane propulsion.

Eva Ore and Betty Schenamen seem quite relieved to know that this week's assignment is completed.

Aviation is a very interesting part of the school day for Don Gilliam and LeRoy Schwartzkopf.

Seems as though Sharon Moore, Don DeVol, and Leonard Propp have read the biblical passage "seek and ye shall find."

"If you want to be like Hoppy, you gotta eat like Hoppy."

A new dishwasher is just one of the many things brought into the home making room.

Miss Agnes Roemmich shows two students the contents of the new deep-freeze.

These boys are demonstrating a few of the many things which they learned, in high school vocational training.

Don't touch those wires!

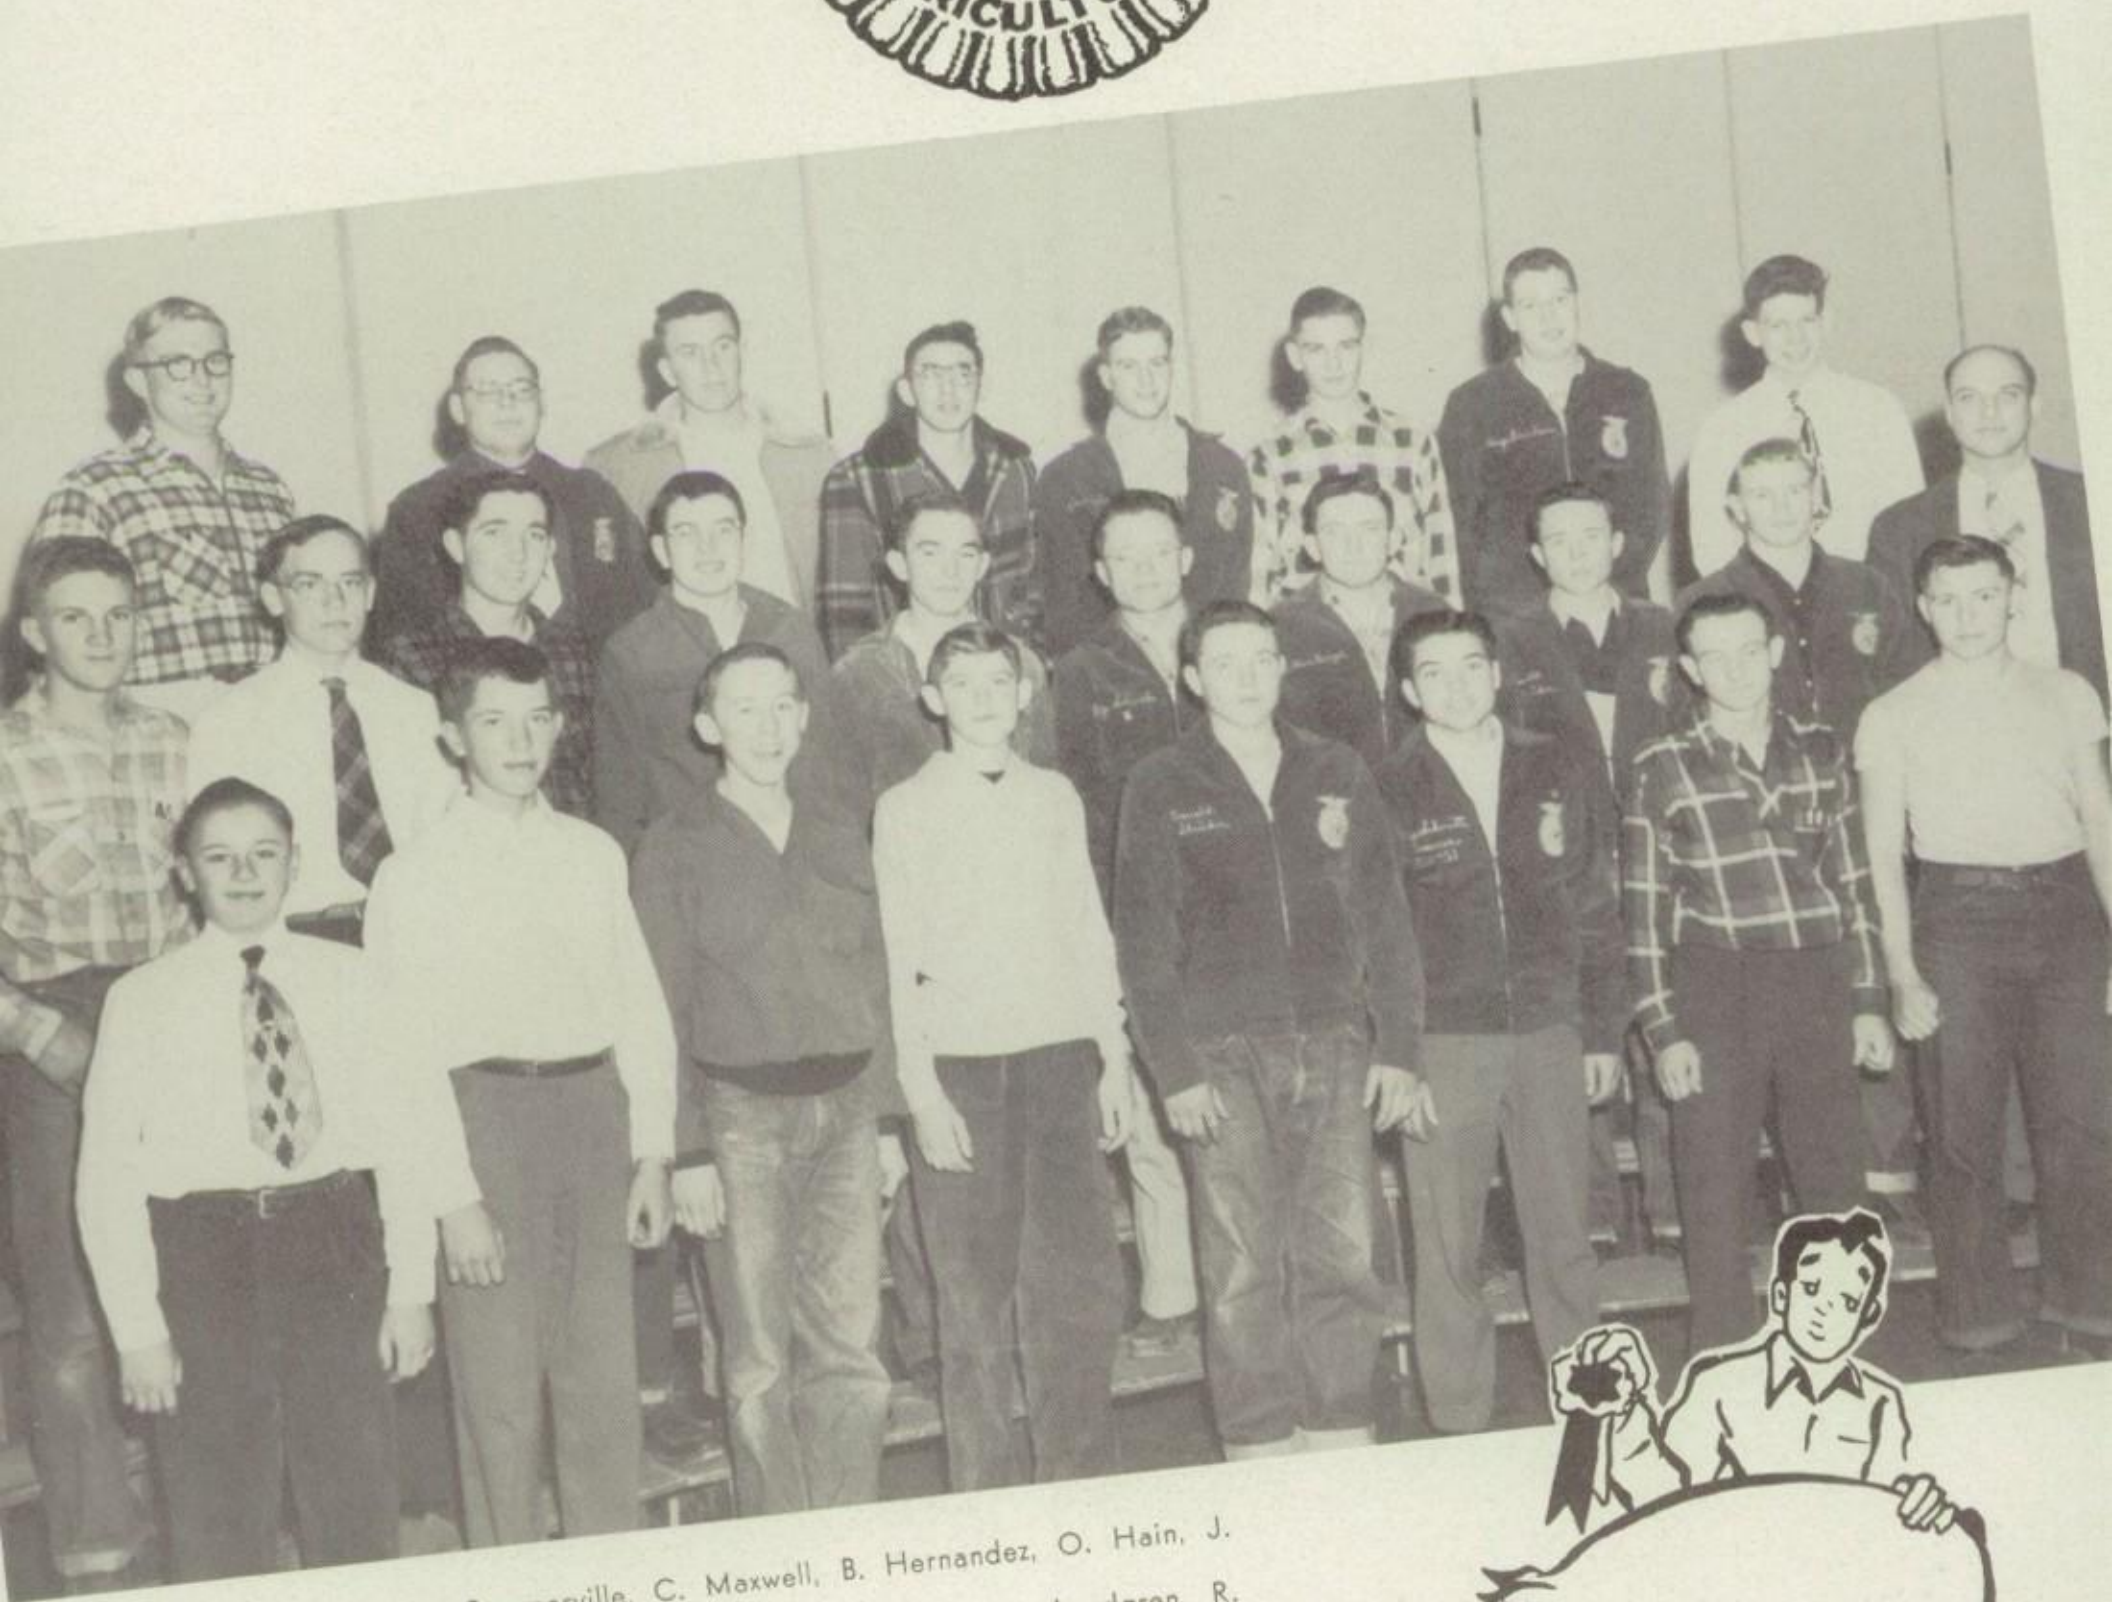

Girls as well as boys are invited to join the mechanical drawing classes.
